Dear Mr. Kotel:

My husband is away on an extended trip (he'll be on the Jerry Williams show on WBBM on the 13th) and I don't expect him home until Christmas, so I am taking the liberty of acknowledging your letter.

I can't make any commitments for him, but I doubt very much if he could find eany time to take on any more projects than he has already undertaken within the foreseeable future. He is pushing himself already to the point of exhaustion and there seems to be no let-up in sight.

However, when he returns, I will call your letter to his attention, and if he can see his way clear to be of any help, he will get in touch with you.

Thank you for taking the time to write.

I'm enclosing a flyer which will give p you an idea of what he has been and is doing.

Sincerely,

(Mrs. Harold Weisberg)
